Report on Awareness Programme cum Mock Drill regarding Fire Prevention and Protection

On the Observance of Fire Service Week commencing from 14th April to 20th April, 2022 throughout the country, the NSS Wing of the college in collaboration with Fire and Emergency Services Department Anantnag organised an awareness programme cum Mockdrill in the college campus on 15th April 2022. Mr. Moin ul Islam, Assistant Director, Fire and Emergency Services Anantnag was the chief guest for the occasion. The Principal of the college, Dr. Irfan ul Majid presented the welcome address. In her address, she highlighted the importance of having first hand training regarding fire prevention and hailed the Fire and Emergency department and NSS units for holding such programmes in the college. She emphasised that such awareness programmes will not only acquaint students and others about the reasons behind the fire incidents and preventive measures thereof but also enable them to tackle fierce fire incidents themselves.

Moin Ul Islam, Chief Guest spoke at length about the importance of creating awareness related to Fire Preventive and Precautionary measures. The programme followed by the mockdrill performed by Mohd. Yousof and his team (Fire and Emergency Services Employees). Mohd. Yousof elucidated upon the reasons behind the occurrence of widespread fire incidents and ways to curb them. He stressed upon the simple ways to prevent fire incidents like Starvation, Smothering and Cooling. He and his team practically showed students how to check gas cylinder leakage and ways to extinguish the fire.

A good number of students attended the awareness programme. The NSS Volunteers took active participation in the mock drill. Prof. Shahnaz Gul (NSS officer, Unit II) moderated the programme and Prof. Sadaf Beg (NSS officer, Unit I) presented a vote of thanks.
