Report on 15 Day Workshop on
“Art of Calligraphy: Training and Techniques”
26/12/2020 to 11/01/2021

The Literary Club of the College in collaboration with the Departments of Urdu, Arabic and Kashmiri organized a 15 Day workshop on Art of Calligraphy: Training and Techniques from 26/12/20 to 11/01/2021. The workshop was inaugurated with the recitation of Holy Quran followed by eulogy of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) The proceedings of the function were conducted by Dr. Muhammad Ashraf (Convener College Literary Club) . In his introductory speech, he gave a detailed background of calligraphic art and its development throughout ages. He further stressed on the need and importance of this art in boosting self- confidence, creativity and critical thinking among the students. Prof. Ishfaq Ahmad (HoD Kashmiri) presented the Keynote Address in which he highlighted the aims and objectives of the workshop and its scope and significance in the contemporary era. The worthy principal of the college presided over the function. He felicitated the Literary Club for organizing such a dynamic and didactic event in the college and impressed upon the students to regularly attend the sessions of the workshop for better results. Dr. Nisar Ahmad Wani (HoD Psychology) also graced the occasion and shared his valuable and thought- provoking ideas on the subject. The faculty members from various departments attended the function including Prof. Nazir Ahmad Kotey, Prof. Bilal Ahmad Sheikh, Prof. Adil Hussain , Prof. Talib, Prof. Muzaffar Ahmad Zargar and others. The event culminated with the vote of thanks presented by Dr. Firdous Nazir , Head Department of Arabic
